Signs Now Announces Top Franchise Awards

PLYMOUTH, Mich. (June 3, 2011)—Signs Now, a division of Allegra Network LLC, recently announced their top yearly franchise awards. Alan and Harriet Bleiweiss, owners of the Signs Now center in Hollywood, Fla., were recognized with the Best of the Best Award for the second straight year; Christopher and Ericka Freeman, owners of the Signs Now center in Carrollton, Tex., were recognized with the Rookie of the Year Award; and Robert and Laura Rule, owners of the Signs Now center in Boise, Idaho, received the Franchisee Advisory Board (FAB) Award. The winners will also be recognized at the 2011 Allegra Network Convention in Las Vegas, Aug. 7-10.

The Best of the Best Award is the company's top prize and is chosen based on a combination sales volume, sales growth and participation in corporate programs, including peer performance groups and operational studies. The Rookie of the Year Award is presented to the network owner who displays the most stellar performance in their first full calendar year of business. Lastly, the Franchisee Advisory Board Award is given by the elected FAB representatives to a franchisee who has made outstanding contributions to the entire network.

“All of our award winners represent the best of what we strive for in Signs Now owners,” remarked President Steve White. “We are honored to have them among our family of franchisees.”
