Local Company Celebrates Grand Opening at New Location

HOUSTON, Texas. (July 15, 2010)— Local business owners Albert and Susan Strausser held an open house & grand opening on June 22 for their new Signs Now facility, located at 12117 Jones Road. The event attracted over 75 people, including business clientele, chamber executives and Signs Now corporate team members. Signs Now has been serving the community for over 12 years and relocated from its original center at 12310 Jones Road in March of this year.

The grand opening included a ribbon cutting ceremony, prize giveaways, and a center tour, which provided an inside look at the services available to the community at the signage & graphics business. The new center houses a larger, more comprehensive showroom with a full-wall wrap showcasing company projects.

“Our new location is more visible and easily accessible for our current and future clients and we have seen an uptick in customers as a result,” explained Albert Strausser.

The Signs Now service base includes business solutions for outdoor and indoor signage, banners, window and vehicle graphics, vehicle wraps, exhibit and trade show graphics, ADA signage, dimensional letters, directional systems and other visual communications tools.
